
Acceptance of Investigator Team and Participation in Investigation

I. Investigators

Investigator teams consist of a two-member investigation team of faculty or staff members. The Office of Equity and Title IX will do its best to diversify each investigator team—both in terms of social identities and affiliations within the University. Complainant(s) and respondent(s) will be provided a list of all potential investigators prior to the beginning of an investigation and will be given the opportunity to express concern about any potential investigator's ability to act impartially in investigating their case. Decisions related to investigators' participation in their investigation will be made by the The Office of Equity and Title IX. The Director of Equity and Title IX Coordinator may remove any individual who impedes the investigation process. The Director of Equity and Title IX Coordinator will act to oversee the investigation process is adhering to the Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation and procedures.
